- 22 The Committee reserves the right to amend the rules at any time.

HEALTH AND SAFETY

Key Cothi Bridge Show (CBS) Health and Safety documents include:

1. CBS H&S Policy
2. Pavilion Fire Plan, and Emergency Procedures

Both documents are available on the CBS web site (<https://www.cothibridgeshow.cymru>). Printed copies shall also be available on the day of the show in the Secretary's office.

HEALTH AND SAFETY STATEMENT OF GENERAL POLICY

The Society is committed to ensuring that all activities relating to the show are carried out with safety as its primary concern to not cause ill health or injury. Specifically, it will so far as is reasonably practicable:

- Conduct the Society's undertaking in such a way as to ensure persons who may be involved in coordinating, participating in, or attending the activities of the show are not exposed to risks to their Health and Safety.
- Bring to the notice of all Exhibitors, Retailers, Caterers and their Agents and Employees, their duty to co-operate with the Society to ensure that this Policy is effective and to offer all necessary assistance to ensure the Health and Safety at the Show of all Exhibitors and others on the Society's Showground.
- Require those participating in, or attending, the Show to assist the Society in their aims of preventing accidents and abiding by the instructions given by Officials and Stewards before, during and after the event.
- Ensure that appropriate risk assessments are carried out for the Society's activities and be provided by and agreed with individual exhibitors.

HEALTH AND SAFETY ROLES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

The Society has overall responsibility for overseeing H&S matters and shall require everybody under its control to be familiar with regulations and codes of practice relevant to their activity, and with the Society's H&S policy, fire plan and emergency procedures as relevant to their role and responsibilities. The Society Committee members with specific H&S roles and responsibilities (detailed in the policy document) include:

- Land and Buildings member.
- Horse and Pony member
- Cattle and Sheep member
- Poultry member
- Bar member

- (b) Liaising with all statutory and external authorities and other appropriate organisations.
- (c) Investigating and recording all accidents, incidences and other H&S adverse events.
- (d) Briefing and training all officials and stewards on the emergency procedure prior to the show day.
- (e) Co-ordinating health and safety and the response to emergency and major incidents in the Showground.
- (f) Coordinate the reporting of incidents in accordance to RIDDOR if/as required.
- (g) The arrangements detailed in Part 3 of this policy for Emergency Procedures, RIDDOR, Fire Precautions, and Safety Information are implemented.
- (h) A Fire Plan and Emergency Evacuation Procedures for the Pavilion are in place to respond to a major H&S incident.

ORGANISERS, TRADE STAND PERSONNEL, CONTRACTORS and their respective employees as well as Estate Owners and their Agents are responsible for ensuring that:

- (a) Everything reasonably practicable is done to ensure the Health, Safety and Welfare of those attending the show.
- (b) They conduct themselves and their activities so that they do not put themselves or anyone else at risk.
- (c) The access to, and egress, from the site is safe and unobstructed.

MEMBERS OF THE PUBLIC AND COMPETITORS are equally responsible for ensuring that they do not put other persons at risk or compromise the health and safety of others by their acts or omissions, and that they co-operate with the organisers in complying with Health and Safety legislation.

HEALTH AND SAFETY ARRANGEMENTS

EMERGENCY PROCEDURE – These instructions should be adhered to in the event of a Major Incident occurring on the Showground during the Show period:

- (a) The Safety Officer should be contacted immediately by public address or radio.
- (b) The Major Incident Control point will be the SECRETARY'S OFFICE.
- (c) First Aid points are as located on the emergency plan at the back of the catalogue. If needed, contact should be made with the nearest First Aid point and the duty doctor.
- (d) Traffic and Gate Stewards will assist emergency vehicles to the scene of the incident.
- (e) The Casualty Centre will be the Main Pavilion.
- (f) Specific assembly points have been marked on the emergency plan, as in most emergency situations it will not be necessary to evacuate the showground. Stewards will direct the public to these areas.

REPORTING OF INJURIES AND DANGEROUS OCCURRENCES (RIDDOR) - Any accident or incident must be reported to the Show Safety Officer immediately. The Safety Officer will investigate all incidents and liaise with the appropriate enforcing authority and show organisation. All accidents will be recorded in the Society's accident book.

ELECTRICITY – the position and routes of overhead and underground are known, and temporary electrical cables and distributions systems will be agreed; evidence of recent examination and test certificates for electrical installations and apparatus will be obtained for show ground installations and from individual exhibitors; earthing and earth leakage protection will be provided as necessary.

GENERATORS – must be positioned well clear of tentage, straw bales, etc., which can, and do easily catch fire.

INTER HUNTTEAM RELAY COMPETITION

Inter Hunt entries must be submitted to the secretary Jacqueline Hinds.

For further information, tel: 07432 283323 or email secretary@cothibridgeshow.cymru

RULES

- This is a knockout relay competition, and will be held in the main ring at approximately 5.30p.m.
- A team of four riders and four horses, one person to be nominated as Chef d'Equipe.
- Riders to have hunted regularly with their hunt. Each team must include at least 3 riders over the age of 18.
- One Junior rider is permitted, 16 years or over on the day of the show.
- Neither excessive use of the crop nor carrying it in the mouth is permitted when competing.
- Riders are expected to be correctly dressed for a day's hunting and wearing BSI standard headgear.
- Spurs are not allowed.
- Must have hunted regularly with their respective Hunt, should be owned by members and stabled within their hunt county.
- Each team is permitted to bring an extra horse in case of an accident/injury. 14-2hh minimum height.

The Course will comprise of jumps & obstacles designed to be similar to those encountered during a day's hunting.

Two identical interconnecting courses will be set out in mirror image, designed to be jumped by two horses at a time.

Fences that may be encountered are Tiger Traps, Picnic Tables, Hunting Gates, Bending Poles, straw Bales, Tyres, Brushes, Water Trays, Walls, Ditches and a Bullfinch etc.

Obstacles, direction & course plan may change at the discretion of the Course Director.

The WHP Ring (3) will be made available with a practice fence if classes have been completed.

Assemble in the ring within the holding box. First members of the team line up on start, when given signal will set off. On completion of the course the first rider must cross the finish line and hand over the baton/crop to the next member. This is repeated until all 4 team members have completed the course. The first team to have all four members across the finish line wins.

Team members are required to stay within the holding area and it is their responsibility to keep out of the way of other competitors.

No outside help is permitted, ring stewards to assist if necessary.

Knockdowns, falls & refusals will not be penalised, however after 3 refusals at any one fence, competitors must make their way back to the holding area, exchange with the next team member who must continue form the place of refusal and on completing must reduce to a walk in the holding area before continuing their round.

In the event of a team member retiring the next member must start from the point of retirement and continue as above.

Competitors will be stopped if there is a fall to a horse or rider or if a horse becomes loose, then the restart will be from the point of stoppage.

Declaration to be made by the Chef d'Equipe at the Secretary's Office an hour before the start of competition.

Teams will compete in draw order, which will have been made prior to the show.

Commentary A completed pro-forma with team members listed in competition order will be required for the commentator.

A second team from the same Hunt may be entered but will only be allowed to compete if there is a withdrawal from the starting entries. Please contact the secretary Jacqueline Hinds on 20th May for confirmation of starting entries.
